STUDENTS VOTE FOR A LARGER HAMILTON

Life's Poll Shows Undergraduate Sentiment Strong for Increased Enrollment — Present Size Too Small.

COLLEGE OF 400–500 FAVORED

The present Hamilton undergraduates are strongly in favor of a larger college. This fact was brought out in a salient fashion by the recent poll conducted by Life to determine the student opinion upon the size of Hamilton. Of 266 votes cast, 261 favored an increased enrolment.

Three votes were in favor of a college of 250, and two others were for less than 300.

Of the total number of votes cast, those for a college of 500 men came first with 77. A college of 400 was next in line with 56 votes. The votes for a college of from 400 to 500 came to 168, which amounted to about sixty-three per cent of the total. There were 37 votes for a college of over 500.

The results of the voting are given below, arranged as nearly as possible in numerical order:

200–300, 1; 250, 3; 250–300, 1; 300–400, 6; 300, 13; 325, 4; 300–350, 4; 350, 26; 375, 1; 350–400, 2; 400–500, 14; 400, 56; 400–450, 1; 450, 19; 450–500, 1; 500–600, 6; 500, 77; 500–550, 1; 550, 2; 550–600, 1; 600–700, 2; 600, 18; 650, 1; 650–700, 1; 700, 2; 800, 1; 1000, 2.

Although, from the nature of the vote, an average indicative of the exact sentiment of the voters could not be obtained, nevertheless the following averages were determined by classes: Seniors, 442; Juniors, 455; Sophomores, 433; Freshmen, 441. In this determination the three votes cast for a college of over seven hundred men were not considered, because of the fact that they would distort the general average if included.

PRELIMINARY SPEAKING CONTEST HELD IN BINGHAMTON

Sterling Cole, the representative of Haverling High School, Bath, N. Y., received first place in a preliminary speaking contest held last Friday evening at the Binghamton Central High School. Mr. Cole took for his speech several extracts from a speech delivered in Congress, April 5, 1917. The second prize was given to John E. Bloomer of Binghamton Central High School. Deidrich Towne of Union-Endicott High School received honorable mention.

The judges for the contest were: Rev. A. R. Burke, Thomas J. Mangan, '94, Frederick J. Meagher, '99.

At a meeting of the Press Board last Wednesday evening, William H. Farrand was elected chairman for the coming year.

HAMILTON TO MEET COLGATE TOMORROW

Initial Game of Baseball Season to be Played on Maroon's Diamond—Colgate Has Strong Team.

The 1921 baseball season opens tomorrow afternoon, when the Buff and Blue will cross bats with Colgate University at Hamilton. The team will leave the Hill immediately after lunch and will probably travel to Hamilton by automobile. About fifteen men will make the trip.

The Buff and Blue is seriously handicapped by a lack of experienced pitchers, as a result of the graduation of Baumler and Schwartz of last year's squad. Carl Warren, '23, is the mainstay of the pitching staff and will probably start the game against Colgate. Perry, '22, and Gifford, a Freshman who has shown up well in practice, will be used as relief twirlers. Davis will do the receiving. Clark, Moffat, Campbell, and Meehan, another Freshman who has been playing varsity ball regularly at the third corner, will make up a fast infield. In the garden, Capt. Pritchard, Cowan, and May form a strong combination.

Colgate displayed remarkable fight in their initial contest with Tufts last Wednesday. Eighteen hits brought in sixteen runs, ten of which came in the fourth inning. Capt. Leonard and Blume twirled excellent ball, holding the Massachusetts aggregation to three tallies, made on nine hits. Only two errors marred the record of the Maroon infield. Dewey Steffen, who led his team in hitting last season, got off to a good start with two long doubles and a single. Schleuger, Barnes, Hermann, and O'Conner are also dangerous batters.

The teams will probably line up as follows:

COLGATE.	HAMILTON.
Gibbs, lf.	Moffat, 2b.
Barnes, 1b.	Campbell, ss.
Steffen, rf.	Clark, 1b.
Hermann, c.	Pritchard, cf.
Schleuger, ss.	Meehan, 3b.
O'Conner, 2b.	Cowan, lf.
Kinney, cf.	May, rf.
Fitzgerald, 3b.	Davis, c.
Leonard, p.	Warren, p.

FRESHMAN FROLIC PLANS NOW COMPLETE

The plans for the Freshman Frolic have been completed. The Frolic will take place on Saturday afternoon of this week at the Delta Upsilon House. Dancing will last from three until six. Hartigan's orchestra of Troy, N. Y., has been secured to furnish the music.

There are only a limited number of tickets available, and they are now on sale at the various houses. The admission charge is to be $1.50 per couple, or $1.00 for a single admission.

HOBART CANCELS MEET

Hobart College has cancelled the track meet with Hamilton, scheduled for May 14. The reason stated for cancellation was that the meet conflicted with the Hobart lacrosse schedule.

Manager Keane is trying to arrange for another meet on that day, but because of the short notice a satisfactory solution of the problem is doubtful.

This cancellation is a disappointment to the college as well as to the track team, because the meet was one of the main events for Sub-Freshman Day.

PI DELTA EPSILON CHAPTER INSTALLED

Installation Under Direction of Colgate Chapter—Combined Chapters Have Banquet in Utica.

The installation of the Hamilton Chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon took place at a banquet held in Utica at the Hotel Martin last Friday evening. Three men were initiated at this time: Kenneth B. Turner, Dean Alfange, and Adelbert K. Edie. Together with LeRoy B. Sherman, Jr., who had been previously initiated, these four men will form the Alpha Sigma Chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon. The men mentioned above were the petitioners, through whose efforts a chapter of this prominent national journalistic fraternity was obtained for Hamilton. Within a short time some six or eight men prominent in journalistic work on the Hill will be initiated into the fraternity.

G. H. Chidsey, president of the Alpha Iota chapter at Colgate, presided at the installation banquet. He was assisted in his task by the members of the Colgate chapter, who initiated two Colgate pledges at the same meeting.

The chapters of Colgate, Hamilton, and Syracuse will endeavor to promote the interests of college journalism in Central New York. Pi Delta Epsilon is strengthening college publications both in the East and the West. The fraternity has chapters at several of the most prominent universities and colleges in the country, including Harvard, Yale, M. I. T., Hamilton, Colgate, Dartmouth, and Syracuse in the East, and Illinois, Michigan, and California in the West. It is predicted that the exchange of ideas between various members of the fraternity will greatly aid in raising the standard of Hamilton College journalism.

NOTICE

The St. Lawrence–Hamilton baseball game scheduled for Friday afternoon at 3:30, has been changed to 4:30, in order to enable the House Party guests to witness the contest.

BULLARD, '03, DELIVERS LECTURE ON RUSSIA

Myers Lecturer is an Authority on Russia—Lecture Gives Insight into Modern Russian Conditions.

LAST LECTURE OF YEAR

The fourth and last Myers Lecture of the college year was given in the chapel Saturday evening. The lecturer was Arthur E. Bullard, '03, a journalist of note and a wide traveler. The subject of the lecture was "Russia."

According to Mr. Bullard, no person who professes to understand conditions in Russia has ever been there. He mentioned three English authors who have each written on the subject of Russia; each man was undeceived by a visit to the country itself. Accordingly we do not receive correct reports of events in Russia because all accounts are tainted by the prejudice of the reporter.

The future of modern Russia lies in the hands of the peasantry. They constitute eighty per cent of the population and yet they are held down by the other twenty per cent, which is made up of three classes: the bureaucracy of the nobility, the cultured people who are not connected with the government, and the working class which has gained some influence through organization. These minorities rule and have ruled because they are the only classes that have been able to assert themselves. Because of its illiteracy the mighty mass of peasantry is compelled to bow to the minority.

The present revolution has come about through the impatience of Lenine. He forgot the principle that "reform can be effected only by a sweeping majority", and started to force his reforms by means of the machine gun. The speaker said that he would not attempt a quarrel over Lenine's proposals, but over his methods of enforcing them.

Another important reason for the lordship of the few in Russian politics is the wide gulf that exists between various classes of society. In this country the development of democracy is furthered by intimate class relations. In Russia democracy is hindered by a fixed caste system. Ideas and movements do not circulate because of the intense hatred and suspicion between classes.

Mr. Bullard expressed hesitancy in prophesying the future of Russia. The integration of the peasantry is the solution of the political problem, but its realization is hindered by the illiteracy of the peasant and the want of social amity. The fall of the Bolsheviki will be of no benefit so long as the masses sleep in ignorance.

The lecturer declared that there is no cause for alarm in this country over the spread of anarchy. The de-

DEAN ALFANGE, '22, ELECTED DEBATE CAPTAIN

Intercollegiate Debating Squad Holds Annual Election—Plan to Again Petition Delta Sigma Rho.

Dean Alfange, '22, will be captain of debate, and Carlyle E. Yates, '23, manager, for the coming year of 1921-1922.

At the annual election held by the intercollegiate debate organization last Wednesday morning, the following officers for next year were elected: Dean Alfange, '22, president; Harold M. Hartness, '22, vice president; and Carlyle E. Yates, '23, secretary and treasurer. Through an established custom, the president automatically becomes captain of the intercollegiate debate squad for the ensuing year, and the secretary-treasurer becomes manager.

It is planned by the organization to resume efforts next year to obtain a chapter of Delta Sigma Rho. Delta Sigma Rho is the largest honorary debating fraternity in the country. Hamilton College last year presented a petition and sent a delegate, Franklin C. Fry, '21, to the bi-annual convention of the fraternity, but it was decided to postpone consideration of the petition until the next meeting.

"PICKWICKIANS ABROAD" REACHES SECOND EDITION

Book Written by John Gilbert Reid, '21, at Age of Fourteen—Second Edition Contains Preface by G. K. Chesterton.

Announcement was recently made that a second edition of "Pickwickians Abroad," by Dier Treblig Nhoj, would soon be out. The author of this book is John Gilbert Reid, '21, who writes under the pen name of Dier Treblig Nhoj. The first edition of the book was published in 1913. Mr. Reid was only fourteen when he finished the book.

"Pickwickians Abroad" is a book mainly for children, but which has attracted great attention among adults, not only because of the youth of the author, but also because the book is exceedingly well written. Mr. Reid has always been a Dickens enthusiast, and "Pickwickians Abroad" shows a marked influence of that author. The late Col. Roosevelt was an admirer of the book.

The book was begun January, 1910, by Mr. Reid, who was born March 18, 1899, in Worcestershire, England. When he was fourteen months old he survived the Siege of Peking. Later he studied in the Kaiser Wilhelm Schule, living in a French Concession. At the age of fourteen he sailed on a British vargo-boat for America. The book was written in Shanghai, China, and is the story of the travels of an imaginary family. The actual experiences in the book were those experienced by the author himself. The idea was suggested to Mr. Reid by the works of Dickens, and by a club called the Pickwick Club which served as a means of amusing the orphans of the Siccawei Orphanage near Shanghai. In the preface of the book Mr. Reid says that the club consisted of a hundred or more manikins that acted out the adventures of the Pickwick family for the pleasure of the orphans.

The first edition had a large sale, so large in fact that a new edition is now going to be put out. The preface to this edition is to be by the well-known English author, Gilbert K. Chesterton, who has become deeply interested in Mr. Reid's work.

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

Alumni News

—Paul M. Hamlin, '19, Hamilton's representative in Yale-in-China, has just completed a long trip through the province of Eastern Hunan. He came in contact with a variety of Chinese life. In part, he writes as follows: "We hiked all day through a heavy rain. The roads were terrible. The Chinese in this section have rarely, if ever, seen a foreigner. We tiffened at a roadside inn where rice was already cooked. This meal we took in the shortest time so far. We left the inn exactly forty-five minutes after our arrival." Concluding, he says: "It will not be long before I shall be returning to the dear old land of America, but still I know that I shall miss China very much."

—Rev. Henry K. Booth, '98, has just completed his twelfth year as pastor of the Congregational Church of Long Beach, California. Under his guiding influence this has grown to be the third largest Congregational church on the Pacific Coast.

—Allan Y. Bristoll, ex-'22, is with the Russell and Erwin Hardware Corporation in San Francisco, Calif.

—John L. Keddy, '15, is investigator of Government and Administration with the U. S. Bureau of Efficiecy. At present he is working under the Congregational Reorganization Committee which is directed by Mr. Herbert C. Hoover. He may be addressed at Apartment 18, 1405 Girard St., Washington, D. C.

—Seward A. Miller, '99, who has been counsel for the State Department of Farms and Markets, has recently moved to Utica. He is now the counsel for the Dairymen's League, the central offices of which are situated in Utica.

—In the "Exponent", the student publication of Baldwin-Wallace College at Berea, O., there recently appeared an article from which the following are extracts: "Professor Chester McLean, debating coach, states that our teams have an equal chance to win the debate on April 15..... Under the able coaching of Professor McLean, Baldwin-Wallace may look forward to big things in the forensic field. Professor McLean has opened a new class in Dramatic Production, which, at present, is working on a one-act play, 'The Ghost of Jerry Bundler'. "

Many undergraduates and alumni will remember Professor McLean as "Chet" McLean, ex-'20. Mr. McLean came here from Beloit, Wis. Last year he attended the University of Wisconsin, and at present he is the head of the Public Speaking Department at Baldwin-Wallace.

A Larger Hamilton

The successful completion of the endowment fund drive will insure a Greater Hamilton. The result of the voting by the undergraduates last Thursday morning indicates that the majority desires a Larger Hamilton.

It means that the students are confident that a Larger Hamilton and a Greater Hamilton should go together. They believe that Hamilton can best fulfill its purpose and mission in the educational world by increasing her enrolment. They believe that Hamilton, with this increased registration, would be far better equipped to uphold her name in intercollegiate circles. They believe that Hamilton would have better athletics, better publications, better dramatic organizations, better musical clubs, with more material to draw from.

Life is heartily in accord with the sentiment of the undergraduates. We are confident that the advantages mentioned would be gained. Moreover, an increased enrolment does not necessitate a set of lower standards. The growth could not come too suddenly—but it should come none the less surely. With a gradual growth the old Hamilton traditions and spirit would continue undiminished. Furthermore, it would not be necessary to lower entrance requirements.

Practically every college with which the Buff and Blue competes—and we do not mean athletic competition alone—has a larger enrolment and consequently more material from which to pick than does Hamilton.

There is much to be said for a college of about four hundred and fifty students. Such a college is large enough to support its extra-curriculum activities, and support them well. But it is also small enough to cherish the ideals and possess the advantages that are a part of the strictly small college.

From three hundred to four hundred and fifty is not a large jump so far as figures go. Life would welcome a discussion of this growth by the alumni and the undergraduates. It is a matter of vital import to the College, and a presentation of the various aspects of the question from different view-points would be of real value.

AMENDMENT TO RULES FOR THE OPERATION OF THE HONOR COURT

The Rules for the Operation of the Honor Court "may be amended by a three-fourths vote of those present at a regular college meeting, provided that notice of this amendment be published in Hamilton Life at least one week previous to the college meeting, and provided that the amendment so adopted be ratified by the faculty." The members of the Honor Court propose to the college that the Rules be revised by the insertion of the following provision: "Such penalties, after approval by the faculty, shall be reported to the college". The new clause is to be inserted between Sections 2 and 3 of Article 4, so that the amended Rules will read as follows:

Sec. 2. In case of conviction the committee shall determine the punishment under the following regulations: First—In case of fraud by a member of the senior, junior, or sophomore class, the penalty shall be a recommendation to the faculty of separation from college. Second—In case of fraud by a member of the freshman class, the penalty shall be a recommendation to the faculty of either suspension or expulsion.

Sec. 3. Such penalties, after approval by the faculty, shall be reported to the college.

(Section 3 of the present rules will become Section 4.)

The members of the Honor Court propose the above amendment on account of a feeling that the actions of the Court should be officially reported to the college. The college is asked to consider the amendment carefully with the view of either accepting or rejecting it.

The History Club will meet at the Delta Kappa Epsilon House tomorrow evening. Seaver, Smalley, and Coupe will speak on the "European Background of the Development of New York State".

—The present year marks the largest enrollment at the University of Chicago of foreign students that that institution has ever had. There are 463 such students representing forty-two countries. Russia leads with 100, while China comes second with 75.

—The baseball team representing the University of Washington will play a series of games with the team representing the Waseda University of Japan, next September and October, in the latter's home city of Tokio, according to arrangements made.

BULLARD LECTURES ON RUSSIA

portations have been actuated by fear. Only supreme confidence in our own government and in our institutions will be a safeguard against the advances of "red" methods and principles.

Mr. Bullard was a student at Hamilton College for two years. Later he became an author, and in 1906 was the foreign correspondent for Harper's Weekly, Collier's Weekly, The Outlook, etc. He is the author of "Panama", "A Man's World", "Comrade Yetta", "The Barbary Coast", "The Diplomacy of the Great War", and "Mobilizing America". He has recently been in Russia and Siberia, where he was exposed to many dangers.

ONE OF our salesmen.
ONCE SAW a man.
ROLL A cigarette.
AND STOP to light it.
JUST THEN a piece.
OF FINE French pastry.
(YOU KNOW the kind.
IN THE one-arm joints.
THEY CALL 'em "sinkers.")
FELL ABOUT ten stories.
FROM THE lunch-box.
OF SOME wealthy plumber.
AND BEANED the man.
OUR SALESMAN dashed up.
AND SAID, "My dear sir.
WHAT HAPPENED?"
THE MAN rubbed his dome.
AND BEGAN, "I was just.

Air-Tight Tins of 50

Ask your dealer to show you the new vacuum-sealed tins of 50 Chesterfields. A compact, convenient and absolutely AIR-TIGHT packing—the cigarettes keep fresh indefinitely.

AND speaking of speed, the fastest-growing cigarette on the market is this same Chesterfield. The reason? Simple enough—people like 'em better. That "can't-be-copied blend"—that air-tight package—that moderate price—that "Satisfy" taste—no wonder Chesterfields are leaping ahead. On every count, they certainly do "Satisfy."

Carpe Diem

Spring house party is almost here and the usual signs are prominent. We hope you all get a girl for the shin-dig; one that looks like a dream, can dance like a fairy, and possesses the signs of human intelligence. And if you do, be sure to show her the empty class rooms where you recite, talk about how blue the sky is, etc., and—drag her around. This is a meller-dramer in one spasm, entitled

"Pie a la Mode; or Who Swiped the Doughnut?"

The scene: Commons, any evening. Characters: Ham Coll boys, Mrs. King, Art Doyle, and the kittens. Soft music is heard outside, and a quartet comes down with "How Dry I Am" as the curtain rises.

Mrs. King: "Oh, the boys are serenading me. Harold, bring out the pies and soup spoons."

Twenty happy, smiling faces crowd through the door. "G'd evening,, Mrs. King."

One of them: "How much is a ten-cent piece of pie tonight, Mrs. King?"

Another: "Don't you think Doyle makes a splendid actress, Mrs. King?"

Next: "Why don't you serve pancakes at night, Mrs. King?"

Ditto: "Because eggs dropped a nickel, why don't we have omelet all the time?"

Some more: "How are your kittens this evening, Mrs. King?"

Johnson: "Charge up fifty cents to Gruggel, please—it's all right, he owes me a nickel."

A blast on the piano, and Zip enters through the back window, chins himself on the pipes, leaps over the table, drops backward on a chair, and begins to talk. We can't imitate him.

Yet 'nother: "May I use the phone, Mrs. King?"

Doyle, earning-his-feedly: "And the acting was splendid, Mrs. King, oh gorgeous—studendous—such emotional portraying—Fancher says that ——"

Repeat at will; this lasts until ten-thirty, at which time Russ Miller trails out with two grape-fruits in his pocket, having put away a quart of cream, telephoned to Albany, and signed up for ten cents.

Yes, the suping is better—or worse—but it isn't the same place since the good old days of Abie Ballot's "Applepiechoclatepieminicepiecreampie—what'll ya have?"

Ted Hoyland sez: "The Theeta Delts, Dekes, and Beta Kaps are gonna amalgamate, put the three houses together, and make a good garage. We s'licite your patronage."

CENTRAL NEW YORK ALUMNI DINE TONIGHT

The Hamilton Alumni of Central New York will hold an informal dinner at the Hotel Martin in Utica this evening. All alumni of the college in this part of the State are invited, as well as any of the undergraduates who may wish to attend. This is the first dinner of its kind that has been arranged in this section of the State since the beginning of the war. The cost of the dinner is two dollars a plate.

The Buffalo Hamilton Alumni Association will hold its annual dinner on Wednesday evening, April 27. President Ferry will speak at both affairs.

—In a recent survey at the University of Kansas, it was found that the average expense of the average student there was $827.29 annually.

—The University of Vermont baseball team will tour Porto Rico this summer if present plans of the athletic management materialize. The trip will begin immediately after Commencement and last two months.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE CLASS OF 1866

Having been appointed secretary of the Class of '66, since the death of Wilmont E. Burton, I have corresponded with the surviving members of our class, requesting brief reports of themselves and their families. I have received six reports. One of our classmates, Rev. Henry Loomis, died at Yokohama since the last Alumni Register was published.

Coman C. Ames of St. Paul, Minn., engaged in grain business in Oswego, N. Y., till 1882; then in farm machinery at Fargo, N. D., afterwards at Chicago with George A. Porter of '06 in manufacturing, afterwards in produce business at Duluth. He celebrated his Golden Wedding anniversary in 1917. He has one son and one daughter. Ames recalls with pride the prominent part which '66 had in the first Hamilton "Baseball Nine", viz., Hopkins, Porter, Baker, and himself.

Prof. Ezra J. Beard of Newton, Ia., reports a very successful and useful life as an educator, having been superintendent of schools in several cities of Iowa and Missouri. He enlisted in the U. S. Army in 1864, and served under Sheridan and Grant. He has three daughters living. His only son enlisted in the U. S. Army and died in 1898 from camp fever. Prof. Beard refers to the inspiration received from Professors Upson, North, and Root, though enjoying their influence only for a part of the college curriculum.

Morris P. Brewer of Minneapolis entered the legal profession and has practiced successfully at Minneapolis. He was married. He has one daughter and two sons, who graduated at Yale University.

John H. Cunningham was engaged in teaching for a short time. He was afterwards on the "Utica Herald." After having served as editor for eleven years, he became editor of the "Elmira Advertiser" for two years. He then served on a Federal Board of Appeals, at Washington, D. C., and has since been transferred to the Customs House in New York, where he is still employed. His wife died in 1918. He has two sons, who graduated at Hamilton, one in '98, and the other in '99.

Francis B. Hart is a lawyer in Minneapolis, still actively engaged in the practice of his profession. He has two daughters. Mr. Hart entered with the class of '65, but left college to enter the army during the Civil War. While serving as Provost Marshal at Hilton Head, S. C., in exchanging some prisoners just released from Andersonville Prison he discovered among them Frank Place of '64, reduced to a skeleton and almost unconscious; a noble young fellow, who recovered from his terrible experience and is still living at Cortland, N. Y.

Rev. Hiram H. Kellogg entered the class of '63, but left college to teach in '62. He enlisted in the 86th Illinois Regiment. He reentered college with the class of '66 in the Junior year and in '69 graduated from the Auburn Theological Seminary. He served as home missionary in Iowa for two years and afterwards became a pastor of a church in Evans Mills and then in Seneca Castle and other churches till 1912. After 44 years of pastoral work he retired and is now living in Geneva, N. Y. He has two sons, J. Wilford, who graduated from Hamilton College in 1906, and Winthrop Huntington, who graduated from Hamilton in 1908.

Prof. Chester Huntington is living at Princeton, N. J., and is still actively engaged in engineering work. He has two sons and two daughters. During the winter of 1917-18, the family of Prof. Huntington was in Washington, D. C., engaged in war work.

CHARLATANS SCORE SUCCESS IN SYRACUSE

Program of Three One-act Plays Exceptionally Well Received—Production Under Auspices of Wellesley Club.

The Charlatans presented three one-act plays before appreciative audiences in Syracuse last Friday and Saturday evenings. In spite of extremely bad weather, the performances were very well attended. The production was under the auspices of the Wellesley Club at the Little Theatre, for the benefit of the Wellesley College Semi-Centennial Fund. The Wellesley committee who arranged for the production consisted of Miss Grace Ballard, Mrs. O. N. Marsh, Mrs. Parker A. Stacey, and Mrs. Clarence C. Hancock.

The three one-act plays presented were: The Last Man In, Suppressed Desires, and The Boy Comes Home. The casts for the plays were well selected. Spice, in the character of The Last Man In, was extremely well received and his part was done with confident understanding. In Suppressed Desires the acting of Baer was exceptionally finished and worthy of praise. In The Boy Comes Home Pope and Griffith did a bit of good acting, and fitted their parts to perfection. Each of the others carried forward his bit of the acting with intelligence and honest effort. A knowledge of voice control, and an ability to read lines, two basic requirements of good acting, were apparent to the understanding critic.

The alumni gave the club a warm welcome. There was a tea dance and a dinner at the University Club on Saturday in honor of the men, and the general entertainment was done in a royal manner. The casts of the plays were as follows:

The Last Man In—Mrs. Judd, Arthur Joseph Doyle; Mr. Judd, Russell Gordon Miller; Mr. Billett, Allen Eaton Throop; A Customer, Thomas Brinkerhoff Pope; Another Customer, William Morrison Griffith; The Last Man In, William Henry Spice, Jr.; The Doctor, J. Lester Albertson.

Suppressed Desires—Stephen Brewster, Arthur Joseph Doyle; Henrietta, his wife, William Morrison Griffith; Mabel, William Bush Baer.

The Boy Comes Home—Uncle James, William Morrison Griffith; Aunt Emily, William Marsh Pottle; Philip, Thomas Brinkerhoff Pope; Mary, William Grant Lewis, Jr.; Mrs. Higgins, Joseph Lester Albertson.

—The Union track schedule has just been announced for the season of 1921. It consists of four meets as follows: April 30, Williams at Williamstown; May 14, Rochester at Schenectady; May 20, Colgate at Hamilton; May 28, Hamilton at Clinton.

—Every loyal alumnus should subscribe for Hamilton Life.
